Basic information on sale and redemption of participation units within the territory of the Republic of Poland

On the territory of the Republic of Poland, the Fund's Participation Units are distributed exclusively to institutional clients, in particular insurance companies, investing either directly or via unit-linked products. Therefore the Fund will be the underlying investment of unit linked products. Sales activities will focus on the insurance companies themselves, cooperating distribution companies and possible clients of unit linked life products. Within this target group insurance companies and similar product providers of pension schemes will be invested also throughout their own cover pool. The Fund will not market units throughout beneficial ownership or nominee structure. Detailed information on sale and redemption of the Fund's participation units is available in German at the following website: http://www.ampega.de/home/fondsdetail/index.html?isin=AT0000825393&area=21; in Polish version at the following website: https://www.c-quadrat.com/pl/.
